NORWAY AND SOUTH PARIS, ME., FRIDAY, APRIL 1, 1887.

FOR ADVERTISING RATES.

NO. 13.

NORWAY SOCIETY DIRECTORY.

A cordial invitation is extended to strangers who belong to any of these organizations to visit meetings when in town.

WOLF ROBES!

Several small robes are worn in the hair instead of one good sized one, and they are tucked in apparently at random.

LOWER PRICES

Than ever before known, to close out stock before packing.

PARM AND GARDEN.

In an early number of this series the scribe gave such an account as he was able at that time of the first great crime committed in Norway, and so much of the history of the trial as had come to his knowledge.

Norway Village in the Forties. No. 22.

The jury convicted Tothly of manslaughter at the second trial. Chief Justice Whitman evidently thought Tothly had considerable provocation for his act for he simply sentenced him to jail, which could not exceed one year, instead of the usual term of years.

HOUSEKEEPER.

How THE WAVES OF THE SHIP TRAVELED: PASSING OF THE POSSESSION. When the mandate has gone forth for the ladies to go abroad from the palace, which they always do with the possession of coaches, mounted heralds are sent half an hour in advance to announce their coming in the streets they are to traverse.

Make Your Hens Lay
By Feeding Rawson's Hen Feed!
The purest, most healthy, and cheapest in the market. One package will convince the most skeptical person it pays to feed it. It will keep the fowls healthy, and keep chickens from your flock and make a large increase in amount of eggs. The eggs will hatch more readily when it is fed to your hens. It is not a cost-feed; try one package and you will always feed it afterwards. Put up in larger packages than any other kind now in the market, and will always give entire satisfaction. Put up by J. H. RAWSON, Paris, Me., Breeder of Fancy Poultry. Proprietor of Rawson's Horse and Cattle Medicine. 9-1
